DREAMING TOGETHER

Explore Your Dreams by Acting Them Out

by Jon Lipsky

Dreaming Together introduces a playful, interactive way to get more of what dreams offer. It shows you how to interact with dream figures and discover fascinating things about yourself and others.

Easy and safe, this original approach is fun and powerful—particularly useful for actors looking for new ways in to emotions.

An ideal resource for:

- Individuals interested in their dreams
- Dream workers
- Discussion groups, book groups
- Artists, creative people
- Actors, drama teachers and students
- Self-development/New Age groups

Jon Lipsky, M.F.A., is a full professor of Acting & Playwriting at Boston University. He received the Eliot Norton Award for Best Director for his collaboration with jazz musician Stan Strickland. He has been Associate Artistic Director of the Vineyard Playhouse on Martha's Vineyard, and playwright-in-residence at The Merrimac Repertory Theater, TheaterWorks/Boston, and Boston's Museum of Science. Lipsky studied Embodied Dreamwork with Robert Bosnak, leads Dream Enactment groups in the U.S. and abroad, and is opening a Dream Cafe at the Central Square Theater in Cambridge, Massachusetts, this fall.
